Human Trafficking

Human trafficking is a crime and a form of modern-day slavery involving the exploitation of children and adults.

If you or someone you know is being forced to engage in any activity and cannot leave -- whether it is commercial sex, housework, farm work, construction, factory, retail, or restaurant or hotel work, or any other activity -- call the National Human Trafficking Resource Center for help.

Look for Signs

- » Unable to leave their job.
- » Does not control their earnings.
- » Unable to move freely or is being watched or followed.
- » Is afraid to speak in the presence of others.
- » Shows signs of being assaulted or otherwise harmed (denial of food, water, sleep, medical care)
- » Passports and other documents have been taken away
- » Has been cheated into paying debt.
